Just as the Colts were all set to nab oth of those games yesterday, just were prepared to send tradition to the four corners of this water-logged earth, just as the Goober jinx was tucking his tall between his nether limbs preparatory to a rapid flight into the land of utter oblivion—but what's the use? When the icy precipitation began our lads were two runs in the lead, the said two runs having been accumulated through some of the weirdest sort of baseball yet uncorked in this day of weird performances. The marriage game had been more of a morning game had been more of a frolic than a contest, and Manager Ryan was counting upon second place as a certainty, since the scoreboard gave evidence that Mathews's Buildre due a drubbing at the hands e Welcher and his Roanoke

As land, Va., May 50.—At a meeting of the elevin men that made their letters in baseball this year at Randolph-Macon, Rumsey Blss. Il Marston, of Woodstock, Va., was named as next year's captain.

Marston pitched nearly every game the Yelicky Jaokets played this year, and pitched the entire nine innings of six championship games. In every game his work was wonderful, and all he needed was for the team behigd him to make a few runs and he could attend to the other team when at the bat.

The eleven men who will receive their baseball letters when the various monograms are awarded during the college finals are: Frank Bane, D. Q. Eggleston, R. B. Marston, Webb Midyette, Wallace White, F. E. Anderson, T. L. Lipscomb, J. I. Thornton, E. P. Barrew, T. H. Brown, Jr., and J. Woodin.

The sthietic board for next year was recently elected at a meeting of the entire Athletic Association. This board controls all the athletic teams that represent the college. The board consists of six men, one of whom is a member of the faculty. They are: D. Q. Eggleston, president: R. B. Marston, treasurer: C. P. M. Sheffey, W. R. Soott, Webb Midyette and Dr. Frank L. Colts Away Entire Week

All of this week the Colis will have a merry time. They leave, thirteen strong, conforming with the league formula, hended by Manager Ryan, for Tidewater, where Newport News and Portsmouth will divide honors as hosts to the local crowd. Newport News gets the honor first, Ryan ferrying to Portsmouth for the week-end. If he is able to break even during the week the fans will be more than satisfied. Harry Mathews is sure to fight for every game in his town, and he is anxious to keep the Builders about where they now are. Certain it is that he is going no lower if he can help it. Jesse Tannehill may not have as formidable a bunch as some of the teams in the circuit, but he always manages to make it intensely interesting for the Colts, regardless of whether he is at home or visiting here.

Just at present Manager Ryan's pitchers are giving him some concern. They are not going as strong, as he would like to see them. Somehow or other they have developed a faculty of collapsing in the final moments of the contest, allowing the opposition to come from behind, and, if not winning, at least getting uncomfortably close. However, with even breaks, he expects to return with at least as good a position as he now occupies.

Popular Coach of Richmond College Signs Two-Year Con-

Many Institutions Put in Bid for His Services, V. M. I. Among Them.

An announcement of vital interest to both students and alumni of Richmond College was made last night by President Boatwright, when he reported that a definite contract, extending for a term of two years, had been accepted by Frank M. Dobson, as director of athletics at the Spider college. Negotiations have been going on back and forth for quite some time, and once it looked very much as though the college was going to be unable to retain Mr. Dobson, because of seemingly insurmountable obstacles. This final announcement will, therefore, clear up all doubt, and the minds car entered by Charles Erbstein, the chicago lawyer, collided with Gillof all the Spiders will rest much hooley's Isotta car as they were ensatisfactorily settled.

This is looked upon as quite an accomplishment by the local authorities, since Mr. Dobson refused several finttering offers from other institutions of very high standing. He, was offered the position of head coach in all branches of sport and athletic director by the authorities of Virginia Military Institute, Ohio State Weslyan Uni-versity and Culver Military Institute, Indiana, besides many other institu-tions of first rank in the Southern athletic as well 43 scholastic world. Consequently, Mr. Dobson's decision to remain with Richmond College must be taken as a very high tribute to the local college, especially since some of the other offers were very tempting.
Mr. Dobson has made a wonderful success this past session with Spider athletics, taking charge last fall when the local teams were almost a joke, and with a master hand developing championship teams out of very meagre material. The winning of championships is no new art for him, however, for his career in the athletic world has been exceedingly successful everywhere he has been. With Mr. Dobson again at the helm, and the new position now occupied by the Spiders in athletics, coupled with their entry upon their new grounds at Westhampton, the college is looking forward to a year of surpassing success.

Charlettesville, Va., May 30.—John Hill Cronly, of Petersburg, Va., has been re-elected captain of the 1914 Virginia track team. He is the first man in the history of athletics at the university to succeed himself in the captaincy of the track team, and well deserves the honor. He is onted as one of the best hurdlers in the country, and is one of the best track men who has ever attended college here. His work on both the indoor and outdoor track has been excellent, and he holds the world's regord for the 100-yard indoor hurdles. He is also the holder of the South Atlantic records in both of the outdoor hurdle events. athletics, taking charge last fall when the local teams were almost a joke, and with a master hand developing

Newport News and Norfolk are pretty nearly in the same position, and it is presumed that, one way and another, all of the clubs will be able to show a clean bill of he neath when called to tar by President Boatwright. Technically all of the clubs will be within the salary limit. There are may by the salary limit was added from the main issue.
